I am continually meeting people who term themselves artists, and am asked to admire their work, when all they do is copy what other people have done. They laboriously paint copies of other people's work, or they do pen and ink reproductions of Christy and Gibson and Harrison Fisher heads and think, because they can do these with a fair resemblance to the original, that they are not artists at all.

constitutional disease, and that salves, which has aroused the belief that deaftiess will soon be extinct, in given below in understandable form, so that anyone can treat themselves in their own home at little expense.
